

1. The client agrees to book the services of Dominic Kaye for the entertainment at the event specified on the booking form and shall pay all due fees within the period specified on the booking form. The stage name of Dominic Kaye refers to Dominic Kapas and all references to Dominic Kaye are fully associated to Dominic Kapas.
2. All deposits received by Dominic Kaye will be deducted from the initial quotation given to the client. The client agrees that deposits are non refundable if the event is postponed or cancelled for any reason.
3. The client shall agree to provide the artist/s attending the event light refreshments / soft drinks throughout the period of attendance at no cost. Where appropriate, the client shall provide a secure area where the artist/s may change clothing for the event performances. Where the artist/s is at the venue for a period greater than 4 hours, the client agrees to provide food at no cost.
4. The artist /s shall provide their own equipment which shall be of a high standard and shall ensure that it is well maintained. However no liability can be accepted by the artist/s for any unforeseen failure of said equipment or failure of electrical supply.
5. The client shall provide at least 2 electrical points for the equipment provided and a performance space no less than 6 feet wide x 4 feet deep.
6. The artist/s agrees to arrive in good time to set up any equipment and start the performances at the time agreed by the client. However, no liability can be accepted by the artist/s for any unforeseen circumstances where mechanical failure of vehicles or road traffic situations delays the arrival of the artist/s. In this event, the artist/s will inform the client and or venue of the situation and will let them know estimated times of arrival.
7. The client agrees that a loading / unloading space will be provided for the artist/s vehicle for a period no less than 20 minutes without risk of a parking fine.
8. In the unlikely event that the artist/s are unable to attend the event due to illness or physical disability, the client agrees that Dominic Kaye will endeavour to provide a replacement act of the same quality.
9. The artist/s agree that they will perform to a high standard and present themselves in a professional manner throughout the period of the event.
10. The client agrees to pay a cancellation fee to Dominic Kaye in the event that a booking is cancelled. A fee of 50% inclusive of any deposits paid will be payable to Dominic Kaye if the booking is cancelled within a period of 30 days and 15 days of the event date and a fee of 100% inclusive of any deposits paid will be payable if the booking is cancelled in a period of 14 days or less.
11. These terms and conditions will apply to all bookings made with Dominic Kaye and the client agrees that these terms and conditions are accepted when signing a booking form or when a booking has been made for a specific date verbally.